

Abstract

A stochastic comparison of solutions of nonlinear stochastic functional differential equations with different drift and diffusion coefficients is obtained. Some known results are generalized.