

Abstract

We discuss bilinear estimates of tempered distributions in the Fourier restriction spaces for the two-dimensional Schrödinger equation whose principal part is the d'Alembertian. We prove that the bilinear estimates hold if and only if the tempered distributions are functions.