

Abstract

We discuss a linear-quadratic optimal control problem with pointwise control and state constraints. The state constraints are regularized by a Lavrentiev type regularization. The main results of the paper are estimates for the regularization error and the stability with respect to noisy data.