

Abstract

Let X be a bounded measurable subset of \mathbb{R}^k . We provide a characterization of the functions $f : X \rightarrow \mathbb{R}$ approximately differentiable almost everywhere. An important tool in the proof is a Saks' Theorem-type result.